FEDERAL GRAND JURY RETURNS INDICTMENTS

Madison, Wisconsin -- A federal grand jury in the Western District of Wisconsin, sitting in Madison, returned the following indictments today. You are advised that a charge is merely an accusation and that a defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.

MADISON MAN FACES CRACK COCAINE CHARGE

Vincent Corner, 36, of Madison, Wisconsin, is charged with possession with intent to distribute five grams or more of crack cocaine. The indictment alleges that he possessed the crack cocaine on May 31, 2007.

If convicted, Corner faces a mandatory minimum penalty of five years and a maximum of 40 years in federal prison. The charge against him is the result of an investigation by the Dane County Narcotics and Gang Task Force. The prosecution of this case has been assigned to Assistant U.S. Attorney Rita M. Rumbelow.

MICHIGAN MAN CHARGED WITH FAILURE TO REPORT TO PRISON

Roger D. Saldia, 49, of Berrian Springs, Michigan, is charged with failing to surrender for a term of imprisonment. The indictment alleges that Saldia, who had previously been sentenced to a term of imprisonment by the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Wisconsin and had been ordered to surrender to a designated institution or the U.S. Marshal's Office in Madison on November 20, 2006, failed to do so. Saldia remains a fugitive.

If convicted, Saldia faces a maximum penalty of five years in federal prison. The charge against the defendant is the result of an investigation conducted by the U.S. Marshals Service. The prosecution of this case has been assigned to Assistant U.S. Attorney Peter M. Jarosz.

COTTAGE GROVE MAN CHARGED WITH THEFT OF MAIL

Todd Moe, 42, of Cottage Grove, Wisconsin, is charged with taking mail from an authorized depository for mail matter. The indictment alleges that in December 2006, he removed from the mail two courtside tickets for the University of Wisconsin men's basketball game on February 10, 2007, from mail sent from the University of Wisconsin Athletic Department to U.S. Bank in Madison.

If convicted, Moe faces a maximum penalty of five years in federal prison. The charge against him is the result of an investigation by the U.S. Postal Inspection Service. The prosecution of this case has been assigned to Assistant U.S. Attorney John W. Vaudreuil.

TWO MEN CHARGED WITH RE-ENTRY AFTER DEPORTATION

In unrelated cases, two citizens of Mexico found living in Madison on May 2, 2007, are charged with intentionally entering the United States after previously being deported. If convicted, Adolfo Ortiz, 35, faces a maximum penalty of 20 years in federal prison, and Efrain Florez-Sanchez, 34, faces a maximum penalty of 10 years in federal prison.

The charges against these two men are the result of an investigation by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement. The prosecution of the Ortiz case has been assigned to Assistant U.S. Attorney Peter M. Jarosz and the Flores-Sanchez case has been assigned to Assistant U.S. Attorney Timothy M. O'Shea.
